COVID Meets Data

by Sara Goldberg, Life/Health Head of Global Products & Analytics, Gen Re, Cologne

COVID-19 is the first pandemic with real data – almost. This session explores hints from past epidemics and pandemics, and how real-time data has and hasn't changed the course of this pandemic, for the public and for the insurance industry. The status of projections and the outlook of COVID-19's impact on mortality and beyond is included in this presentation (as of September 2021).

News from actuviv

Partners

High-class content of the SOA Research Institute is coming to actuviv

The ever-growing actuviv family welcomes a new Content Partner from North America.

The Society of Actuaries Research Institute will share their knowledge and expertise with our community and give actuviv users manifold insights into actuarial trends. They started with four compact videos on the impact of COVID-19 on long-term care insurance as well as senior housing, excess deaths in U.S. general population, and mortality by socioeconomic category.

Partners

Actuaire du Monde joins actuviv

We are very happy to greet Actuaire du Monde in our midst as a partner of actuviv to work together on our common goal of connecting actuaries around the world.

"In short, Actuaire du Monde brings together actuaries from all continents, focuses on countries in need of actuarial resources and cares about vulnerable and low-income persons," tells us Jean Berthon, Chair of Actuaire du Monde. "Through our partnership we give our members, especially those living in developing and emerging countries, a tremendous opportunity to access to a wide range of constantly published content and benefit from this rich information to expand, restructure and confirm their own knowledge.

"Obviously, we are absolutely delighted to join the actuviv community and relieved to have been welcomed and connected to this innovative platform. Likewise, we hope that actuviv users will also become passionate about our mission."

So do we! Therefore, we will publish not just video material of the Actuaire du Monde on actuviv but also regularly inform our users about ways to contribute to their mission by volunteering on various projects around the globe. So, stay tuned for fascinating opportunities to share your knowledge globally for a good cause.
